paid about $300,000 for railroads will last as long as three or four of now. Your region is not so "enter- any ordinary kind. They also keep prising" as you believe, when the a full stock of all kinds of ordinary small matter of $50,000 stalls it,

The city of Springfield subscribed in one day $500,000 to the stock of the Springfield, Jackson Baskets. and Southern Railroad. The Springfield Times, is of the opinion that there is no room now to doubt of at Chase's. its success. The Ironton Register hears that the project is being discussed of extending the road directly from Jackson to Ironton.

Last week's Ironton Register turned the corner teeming full. It of the bride's parents, Fourth street, this city, December 25th, 1879, by Rev. was the Christmas number, neat and wm. Jones, Mr. Will. Pitear, Monday, the 9th day of February, gets down at the heel.

Semi-Local

Ironton Register .- One of the consolidated telephone agents was here the other day encouraging the formation of an exchange, and several citizens are now cogitating over to form an exchange including four counties: Scioto, Gallia, Meigs and Lawrence. The idea is to have a line run up and down the river connecting the four county seats, which would be the county exchange, and then each town would have its own exchange. It is not to be an institution operated as the telegraph line, but to be used only by the members of the exchange.

We hear that the administrator of the late Mrs. Gates will have some three or four thousand dollars in his three or four thousand dollars in his dence of the bride's father, in Rio In selling the last named property, and 65 links to a stake from which a red oak 8 inches bears 8, 12 degrees e. possession, and that said amount legally belonging to Dr. Gates, will be sufficient to relieve his sureties from

The Hamden and Middl route is divided at Wilkesville with two drivers each way, who make alternate round trips daily. Messrs. Will Thompson and Thomas Shannon drive from Wilkesville to Middleport, and Messrs. Charles Henderson and Sam Mite from Wilkesville Middleport Republican,-Mrs. John A. Mauck is again sick with spinal disease, affecting the back of her head and neck. She suffered severely from the same affection a year or more ago.

Pt. Pt. Register-Thirteen jugs of whisky, from Gallipolis, came up on the Humming Bird Monday, for this place, and adjacent thereto. Some of the parties who carried jugs, looked as if they had at least a gallon of whisky in their stomachs.

Geo. Lewis (col.) we understand, has bought out Mr. Atkinson, origcontractor for building the wharf, and that he will push it to completion.

Irontonian .-- Wharfmaster Pritchard and Marshal Munshower have notified the occupants of family and trading bests and the result of the result trading boats, and other crafts lying in front of the city, to pay wharfage or leave. Heretofore these boats, that tie up to the bank either above or below the improved grade, have escaped the payment of wharfage.

DOING A LEGITIMATE DRUG BUSINESS.

They have followed the business for 30 years-in fact, all their lives-in this city, and are known by everybody in Gallia County, by the quality of the Goods they keep.

They deal in nothing outside of legitimate Drug Business. They speculate in no live stock-traffic in no particular thing but Drugs. They are Druggists in the fullest sense of the word. Their Drug Business has INCREASED THIRTY PER CENT. in the last year, which justifies them in saying that their propositions and inducements to the public by daubing of fences and placing of posters, have not been in vain. They believe in occasionally reminding the people where to purchase reliable Goods. IT PAYS in that line or any-REMEMBER, THAT THIRTY YEARS PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE HAVE NOT BEEN FOR NOTHING.
